

K-LOVE serves my family with wholesome programming. I do not want it replaced with a LPFM that would provide other type of programming; K-love programming is in the public interest because of its positive and encouraging impact on my community.